NUMB. 66.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, APRIL 26. to Saturday, MAY 3. 1735.

LONDON, Feb. 7.

THEY write from Barcelona of the 23d paſt, that all the Troops deſigned for Lombardy were embarked, with the Proviſions and Ammunition of War; and that the Fleet waited only for a fair Wind to put to Sea.

From Rome, That the Pope is ſo ſenſibly afflicted at the Death of the Princeſs Sobieski, that he has ordered all publick Diverſions to be ſuſpended for ſome Days; and has preſented the Pretender with a Bill of 4000 Roman Crowns, to buy Mourning for himſelf and Family. The 17th the Holy Father held a Conſiſtory, in which he created M. Spinola a Cardinal, who is nominated Archbiſhop of Naples, but cannot yet get Poſſeſſion of that See, on account of ſome Differences with the Courts of Spain, and Naples. His Holineſs, not caring to be viſited by too many Spaniards, ſent Detachments of his Cuiraſſiers to all the Bridges about Rome, to hinder the Spaniſh Soldiers ſtrolling from their Regiments. The Duke de Montemar came to Rome the 16th in the Evening, and ſupped and lay at the Houſe of Cardinal Belluga; but next Morning, after having viſited the Cathedral of St. Peter, and ſome other Churches, ſet out again for his Army, without waiting on the old Pontiff.

The Letters from Naples adviſe, that Don Carlos continued his Journey for Sicily, and arrived the 17th at Matara; and that the Convoy deſigned for that Kingdom, on board whereof was the Marquis de Garcia Real, with 10 Battalions of Troops, and a great Quantity of Ammunitions of War, was arrived at Melazzo, where they had begun to debark the Troops.

From Florence of the 22d paſt, that the Vanguard of the Spaniſh Army was arrived at Arezzo, on the Frontiers of that Duchy, marching in two Columns, one of which is to paſs by way of Sienna, and the other directly to Piſa, which is to be the general Rendezvous of all the Spaniſh Troops, and where they alſo expect the other Spaniards who are to come from Barcelona, after whoſe Arrival the ſaid Army will be again divided into two Bodies, one of which is to take the Rout of Bologna, and the other directly to Parma.

They are very buſy ſhipping off, in the Ports of Dieppe, Havre de Grace, Calais, and Dunkirck, 80,000 Sacks of Corn, which the King has bought to be tranſported to Genoa, for the Subſiſtance of the French Troops in Lombardy; but the Ships are detained there by contrary Winds.

Paris, Dec. 22. They write from Naples of the 1ſt inſtant, that the 30th paſt Count Traun marched out of Capua with his Garriſon, and the Spaniſh Troops took poſſeſſion thereof, without having loſt one Man during the Blockade; although certain printed News Papers have very much publiſhed the contrary, the Beſieged having not made any Sally from the Place. That the ſame Day the Imperial Garriſon marched out, above 1500 of their Soldiers deſerted; among them all the Grenadiers with their Arms, who have entered into the Spaniſh Service.

The ſaid Letters add, that they had advice from Sicily, that the Detachment of the Citadel of Meſſina, which defended the Fort call'd Terra Nova, fearing a Storm from the Spaniſh Troops, had abandoned that Poſt in the Night, with all the Artillery, to retire to the Citadel, and the Spaniards took poſſeſſion of the ſaid Fort, which will much prejudice the Garriſon in the Citadel, who got all the Water for drinking and other uſes from that Place. That the Spaniards continue to command the Baſtions of St. Claire and St. Blaize and hoped to be ſoon Maſters thereof: That the Garriſon of Syracuſa having put 229 Oxen to feed along the Ramparts of the Place, the Spaniſh Troops, which form'd the Blockade, had found Means to carry them off. Theſe Letters from Naples further mention that 7000 Foot and 4000 Horſe of the Spaniſh Troops were preparing to ſet out for Lombardy to reinforce the Army of the Allies.

Barcelona, February 4. No ſooner were the Tranſports ſet ſail with the Troops for Italy, but Orders were iſſued to prepare for a new Reinforcement. His Catholick Majeſty is determin'd to have an Army next Spring in Lombardy little ſhort of 30000 Men; His Quota, as concerted with the other Allies, amounts to no more than 25000.

London, Feb 15. They write from Mantua, that Count Wallis's late Attempt to ſurprize the Allies at Veſcovado, was well concerted, tho' it prov'd ſucceſsleſs. That General had receiv'd Intelligence by one of his Spies, that the French were bringing thither a large Quantity of Proviſions from Panaricio, under no very ſtrong Eſcort, and that the Place itſelf was weekly defended, whereupon he order'd a large Party of Horſe to take each a Foot-Soldier behind him, and to advance in the Dead of the Night towards Veſcovado; he order'd likewiſe a ſmall Train of Field Pieces to accompany them; but the Ways being bad, the Artillery hindred the ſpeedy Execution of the Deſign, and the French drew together upon the Alarm ſo large a Body of Forces, that the Imperialiſts thought proper to retire; and not having Time to bring off their Cannon, they nail'd them up and left them. The Imperialiſts had ſome Skirmiſhes in their Retreat, and made 57 Priſoners, they brought off likewiſe eight Waggons of wounded Men, amongſt whom were 10 of their own Officers.

Our Letters Yeſterday from France give a pretty Inſtance of the Genius of that Nation, in working up Trifles to ſound like Actions of Importance. Our Correſpondent talks of a late bloody Sea-Fight, ——— runs large Encomiums upon the Bravery of the French Sailors, ——— ſays they have taken the whole Imperial Navy, ——— that the Enemy loſt Six Men to One in the Engagement, &c. All of which is true, and means no more than this, that the French Frigate the Flora (as formerly mention'd) has taken the only Ship the Emperor had ——— in his Service, and that the French loſt five Men in the Engagement, the Enemy thirty. The Veſſel was Dutch, was fitted out ſome Months ago at Trieſte, had cruiz'd upon the Allies ever ſince with great Succeſs, and began the Attack upon the Frenchman when ſhe was taken: The French Ship had her Ports ſhut up, and appear'd like a Merchantman, but as ſoon as the Imperialiſt was come up with her, ſhe ran out her Guns, and gave a Broad-side that carried away the other's Rigging: the Commander of the Imperialist fought bravely for a long time, but finding the Man of War about to board him, he resolv'd to set Fire to his Powder to prevent the Treasure he had amass'd by his Captures falling into the Hands of the French, and was prevented putting his Design in Execution by fifty German Soldiers who serv'd on board him, and could not be brought to share in so gallant an Exit.

Yesterday at one o'Clock, the Convocations of the Provinces, of Canterbury & York waited on his Majesty at St. James's in a Body, and presented the Rev. Dr. Lisle, their Prolocutor, with the usual Ceremony, for his Majesty's Approbation.

After which the Prolocutor presented the Address to his Majesty.

All the Right Rev. the Bishops were present, except their Graces of Canterbury and York, and the Bishops of Bath and Wells, and Bangor, who being indispos'd, could not attend.

CHARLESTOWN, May 3.

This Week arrived here Capt. Mathew Turpin Master of the Sloop Sweet Nelly, he sailed from Barbadoes the 8th of February last, bound to Taltitugos and being left behind one Day after the Taltitugas Fleet, which was convoy'd from Barbadoes by Capt. Brand, Commander of a 50 Gun Ship, he was surprized and taken the 16th of the same Month off the Mugeretoures by a Spanish Sloop mounted with 6 Carriage and 4 Swivel Guns, having more at command upon occasion; they took Capt. Turpin and his Crew on board their Sloop, gave him the Welcome with the broad-side of their Cutlasses, confined and barr'd them down in the Hold and treated them very inhumanely. The Port they were bound to, as far as Capt. Turpin could learn, was Porto Rico, but his Sloop being very light and not able to carry a stiff Sail, they could not fetch it, and beating up shore along the Coast of Hispaniola till all their Provisions and Water was gone, they were obliged to put in on the West-end of Hispaniola at a Place called the Orcanes, where the chief Commanders went a shore to supply themselves among the French inhabiting that Place, but a French Commander, who was taken by the same Villains 8 Months before, happened to meet them, secured those that were on shore, and sent to examine the Sloop, where finding Capt. Turpin and his Crew confin'd in the Hold, carried them a shore to have them examin'd how they came thither, and after having been made sensible of their Misfortune, they in Company with the French Commander were admitted to swear Piracy against the Spaniards, who were committed to Goal to receive their just Punishment, and Capt. Turpin with his Sloop set at Liberty the 12th of April last.

From Savanna in Georgia we hear that one Mr. Savy, for having spoken too freely of the Government of that Colony, was arrested and tried before the Magistrates, and after having been bound over for his good Behaviour in the Sum of 40 l. sterl. set at liberty again.

WILLIAM SWINTON Esq; was chosen the 16th of last month Member of the Assembly for Winyaw in the room of Capt. Richard Smith deceased.

There is a report in Town as if Mr. Sam. Brown, an Indian Trader among the Cherokees, was killed, but it is entirely groundless, for in a late Letter from the Indian Country the Subscriber mentions that he and Mr Brown were then drinking a health to their Friend here in Town, which certainly a dead man cannot do.

On Monday arrived here the Scooner Dolphin James Lusk in 7 Weeks from London, with about 30 Suits for Purrysburgh. The said Capt. informs us that there was a very hot Press upon all homeward bound Vessels when he came away.

On Tuesday last several Gentlemen of Christ-Church Parish met several Gentlemen of Port Royal at the Cockpitt, to fight a Cock Match: The Port Royal Cocks got seven Battles in Eight, and a considerable Sum of Money was won and lost on the Diversion.

From Madrid, of the 1st Instant, they write that the Governor of Ceuta had wrote to the King, That the Moors, who block'd up that Place, had renewed their Hostilities; and 3 or 4000 of them being advanced very near the Place, the Governor had made a Salley with Part of the Garrison, put the Enemy to flight, pursued them a League, killed 1500, and took 300 Prisoners, among them a Renegado which serv'd as an Engineer.
